Call and see for yourself, before buying elsewhere.—P. M. COHEN.—St. Clair Street, Kaltenbrun's Block, Frankfort, Ky.

Monday is County Court day.

Four prisoners were received at the Penitentiary Wednesday from Lexington.

Coal is now selling for 18 cents, an advance of two cents on the bushel in the last week.

The ladies of the Baptist Church propose to give a supper next week for the benefit of their Church.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Lewis has received a call to become pastor of Mt. Vernon Church, in Woodford county.

The Public Schools gave holiday from Wednesday afternoon until Monday on account of Thanksgiving day.

Don't fail to go to the Opera House Tuesday night, enjoy the performance and contribute to a good cause.

During the seven days ending Tuesday night we had in this city nine funerals of residents and one of a non-resident.

Mrs. Louis B. Weisenburgh has purchased from Mr. W. J. Chinn the two-story brick residence at 139 Ann street for $3,000.

Rev. J. B. Tharp has resigned the position of Superintendent of the Masonic Widows and Orphans' Home in Louisville.

The election for Councilmen comes off next Saturday. As the list of registered voters is small, but little interest is taken in it.

Mr. John McCoy, of Benson precinct showed us on Wednesday a ear of corn grown on his place, with thirty-six rows of grains upon it.

Services have been held at the Catholic Church every morning, afternoon and evening this week, conducted by Rev. Father Lambert.

Our farmers took advantage of the cold spell this week to kill hogs, and spare ribs and sausage are plentiful throughout the country.

Hon. E. H. Taylor, jr., has declined to make the race for Representative of this county in the next Legislature, on account of pressing business engagements.

Mr. Mark Simon, of the Capital Hotel Tonsorial Parlor, and Miss Hattie Frankel were married at the residence of the bride's parents in Cincinnati Wednesday.

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund are utilizing some of the idle convict labor in the Penitentiary in having the buildings on the Capitol Square repainted.

We regret to learn that Rev. W. Todd Egbert, formerly of this city, and his wife are both lying very ill with consumption at their home in Morristown, New York.

Mr. Frank Hughes has sold his farm, the Aldridge place, near Farmdale, to Messrs. John R. Nutter and W. F. Emerson, of Scott county, who have taken possession.

The McGibeny family have a full band, a full chorus, a full orchestra and ten soloists.

Capt. Sam. M. Swigert, who has been stationed at Fort Walla Walla, Washington Territory, for the past six or eight months, has been transferred to Jefferson Barracks, Missouri.

Rev. Robt. E. Caldwell will be ordained and installed pastor of the Southern Presbyterian Church in this city on Sunday, December 7th, Revs. S. M. Neal, J. H. Morrison, and T. D. Witherspoon officiating.

Some little boys, while playing on Arnold's Hill Thursday, set fire to the dry leaves and grass, and came near burning the fence and doing other serious damage. The flames were extinguished after considerable space had been burnt over.

Mr. Jesse P. Williams and Miss Annie Jones were married Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John L. Jones, Rev. G. C. Kelly officiating. They left on the 2:30 train for a trip to Louisville and Indiana.

We have received from Prof. J. D. Pickett, Superintendent of Public Instruction, a copy of an edition of the Common School laws of the State, prepared in convenient form by him, which will be found a great convenience to teachers, school officers, and others interested in public education.

The attendance upon Thanksgiving services was large at the union services at the Baptist Church and also at the First Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches. A collection was taken up at the Baptist Church for the benefit of the sufferers from drouth in the Mountains, amounting to $50.50, and at the First Presbyterian Church, amounting to $32.25.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Virgil Hewitt, of this city, which sad event occurred in Cincinnati Thursday afternoon from the effects of a surgical operation. It was not generally known that she was a sufferer from disease, being apparently in perfect health, and the announcement of her death was a great shock to this community. Her husband and little ones have the sympathy of all our citizens.

In accordance with a wager made on the Presidential election, Mr. Jas. Sower wheeled Mr. Sig. Luscher, in a wheelbarrow, from the Brewery, on Ann street, to Messrs. Sower & Ahler's, on Main street, Thursday afternoon. At 3 o'clock the Frankfort Brass Band assembled at Messrs. Sower & Ahler's and marched in front of Mr. Sower and his wheelbarrow to the Brewery, where Mr. Luscher got in and the procession proceeded up Ann street to Broadway, out Broadway to St. Clair, up St. Clair to Main, in Main to Sower & Ahler's. The wheelbarrow was provided with a seat having a large tin rooster at the back and a flag on each side. The streets were filled with people along the entire line of march, who enjoyed the novel sight very much. Mr. Sower stood the racket in fine style, and was fatigued but very little when the fun was over.

Jett.

Thos. Hearn was out hunting on last Thursday.

Jas. R. Shaw went to Louisville on business this week.

Divine service was held at Excelsior Institute on Thanksgiving day.

It is currently reported that Rev. Bro. ——— will be married. Guess.

Dr. T. H. Hudson visited our neighborhood this week, looking for a farm.

Hogs have been about all killed in this neighborhood and its feared the farmers will founder on ribs, bones, &c.

Several of the young ladies from Excelsior went home with Miss Annie South Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving day.

Mr. Thos. H. Wells has a very good lot of cattle on grass, will carry them through the winter and dispose of them in spring.

Mr. Gran. Crutcher, boss carpenter for the L. & N. R. R. Co., was around looking at our depot last week. He found it all O. K.

Miss Blakely will assist Mrs. E. L. South at Excelsior in the future, Miss Flora Lindsey's health not permitting her to teach longer.

HICK.

A Card.

Editor Roundabout:

Please allow us, through your columns, to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness in assisting to save our household goods from the fire on Nov. 10th.

H. S. BANTA AND WIFE.

Very Remarkable Recovery.

Mr. Geo. V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She used two bottles of Electric Bitters, and is so much improved, that she is able now to do her own work."

Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative powers. Only fifty cents a bottle at Joe LeCompte's Drug Store.

PIANOS AND ORGANS! --- EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per month, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.
